Wound care connects: L&R revealed its innovations at the C.P.C. in Paris

Rengsdorf/Vienna, 19 February 2013 – L&R (www.lohmann-rauscher.com) was represented at the Conférence Nationale des Plaies et Cicatrisations (C.P.C.) from 20 to 22 January 2013. High-quality lectures and symposia as well as well-known exhibitors ensured that the prestigious event in Paris was the main attraction for wound experts from all over the world. Then and now L&R is fully involved.

In addition, L&R France and L&R International kept the professional audience up to date with various lectures and posters as well as a symposium on the coordination of wound care between hospital and out-patient facilities.

Suprasorb® P: At first on the international scene

This year's conference also served as a platform to introduce the new Suprasorb® P, a soft PU foam dressing from L&R, whose flexible structure and soft wound contact layer make wound care more comfortable for patient and healthcare professional alike.
